

Nahum 1 Scrolling Parallel

by Sterling D. Allan

v1 The burden of Nineveh. The book of the vision of Nahum the Elkohshite.

A	v2	a God is jealous ,	v6	b Who can stand
B		b and the LORD revenge th;		a before his indignation ?
C		b the LORD revenge th,		b and who can abide
D		a and is furious ;		a in the fierceness of his anger ?
E		b the LORD will take vengeance on his adversaries,		a his fury is poured out like fire,
F		a and he reserveth wrath for his enemies.		b and the rocks are thrown down by him .
G	v3	The LORD is slow to anger ,	v7	The LORD is good ,
H		and great in power ,		a strong hold in the day of trouble;
I		and will not at all acquit		and he knoweth
J		the wicked :		them that trust in him .
K		the LORD hath his way in the whirlwind	v8	But with an overrunning flood
L		and in the storm ,		he will make an utter end of the place thereof,
M		and the clouds		and darkness
N		are the dust of his feet .		shall pursue his enemies .
O	v4	He rebuketh the sea, and maketh it dry, and drieth up all the rivers:	v9	What do ye imagine against the LORD ?
P		Bashan languisheth , and Carmel,		he will make an utter end :
Q		and the flower of Lebanon languisheth .		affliction shall not rise up the second time .
R	v5	The mountains quake at him, ! and the hills melt , ! and the earth is burned at his presence,	v10	For while they be folden together as thorns,
S		yea, the world, and all that dwell therein.		! and while they are drunken as drunkards , they shall be devoured as stubble fully dry.

T	v6	Who can stand before his indignation?	v11	There is one come out of thee,
U		and who can abide in the fierceness of his anger?		that imagineth evil against the LORD, a wicked counsellor.
V		his fury is poured out like fire,	v12	Thus saith the LORD; Though they be quiet, and likewise many, yet thus shall they be cut down,
W		and the rocks are thrown down by him .		when he shall pass through.
X	v7	The LORD is good, a strong hold in the day of trouble,		Though I have afflicted thee,
Y		and he knoweth them that trust in him.		I will afflict thee no more.
Z	v8	But with an overrunning flood he will make an utter end of the place thereof,	v13	For now will I break his yoke from off thee,
AA		and darkness shall pursue his enemies.		and will burst thy bonds in sunder.
BB	v9	What do ye imagine	v14	And the LORD hath given a commandment
CC		against the LORD?		concerning thee,
DD		he will make an utter end:		that no more of thy name be sown:
EE		affliction		out of the house of thy gods
FF		shall not rise up the second time.		will I cut off the graven image and the molten image:
GG	v10	For while they be folden together as thorns, a and while they are drunken as drunkards, b they shall be devoured as stubble fully dry.		b I will make thy grave, a for thou art vile.
HH	v11	There is one come out of thee,	v15	Behold upon the mountains the feet of him
II		that imagineth evil against the LORD,		that bringeth good tidings,
JJ		a wicked counsellor.		that publisheth peace!
KK	v12	Thus saith the LORD; Though they be quiet, and likewise many, yet thus shall they be cut down, when he shall pass through.		O Judah, keep thy solemn feasts, perform thy vows:
LL		a Though I have afflicted thee,		c for the wicked shall no more
MM		b I will afflict thee		b pass through thee ;
NN		c no more .		a he is utterly cut off.*
